ENERTECK CORPORATION ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT AND RESIGNATION OF DWAIN REESE

Stafford, TX, July 25, 2016. Enerateck Corporation (OTC: ETCK) (the "Company") reported today that Dwaine Reese, who has been Chief Executive Officer of the Company since 2013, has announced his retirement and resigned as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and a director, effective immediately. Mr. Reese, one of the original founders of the Company, will be retained as a special advisor on an as needed basis following his departure.

Gary Aman, who has been the Company's President since March 2009, will serve as Acting CEO until further notice.

The Company is continuing in its efforts to engage new potential customers interested in reducing both their fuel consumption and emissions. Having recently completed two positive field trials of our flagship product, EnerBurn, and with many more in progress, our newer distributors are actively working to convert those into new customers.

About Enerateck Corporation
